PRESIDENTS' MESSAGE

Welcome to the 127th Caledonia Fair

On behalf of the Caledonia Agricultural Society, I would like to welcome you to our 127th Caledonia Fair, the last of this century.

As we move to a new millennium our main focus will remain the same, to be an agricultural fair offering exhibitors a showcase for their products and providing our urban friends with the opportunity to learn more about agriculture.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank our sponsors and Friends of the Fair for their generous donations, the exhibitors for all their time preparing and displaying their exhibits and to all members of our Fair Board, your many hours of labour, before, during and after the fair are much appreciated.

*Ralph Yule
1999 President, Caledonia Agricultural Society

6. Where the amount of prizes won by the exhibitor is over $12.00, $6.00 will be retained for exhibitor fee for 2000. Entry Fees, as specified, will be charged. GST will be applied to Entry Fees where applicable.
7. Where the amount of prizes won by the exhibitor is less than $3.00 there will be no deductions in lieu of entry fees.
8. The Society will not be responsible for any loss, damage or accident occurring to any person or property on the grounds during the Fair. The Directors hope patrons of the Fair obey orders. The Society will take all reasonable care of exhibits, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage. (Please note Hold Harmless Agreement on following page.)
9. While every possible assistance will be most cheerfully given in placing exhibits, no package or case of any kind whatsoever will be opened unless accompanied by the exhibitor or someone sent specially in charge.
10. That all articles entered for competition must be entered in strict accordance with the Prize List in order to secure a prize, the exact number and quantity stated in the prize list being strictly adhered to.
11. No member will be allowed to make more than one entry in each case for Society Prizes with the same animal or article unless otherwise specified. 12. All produce to be growth of parties exhibiting same. In the case of every article, product or chattel exhibited, other than livestock, the said article, product or chattel must be of the actual production, growth or manufacture, as the case may be, of the person or persons owning or exhibiting the same, except specially mentioned in the list.

13. Tickets will be placed on the work that has been exhibited before, or is entered in the wrong list, with the words "Ruled Out".
14. That the exhibitor of horses, cattle or sheep do bring them forward when called upon by the Directors, otherwise they will not be noticed.
15. No competitor will be entitled to a prize if the judges deem the stock or article unworthy of the same.

17. Any exhibitor making a protest to the official judges will be required to make a deposit of $50.00, and if said protest is not sustained the said amount will be retained by the Association.
18. All protests to be made in writing as soon as possible, so that the judges in the class may be heard on it, as the Directors of the Society do not constitute a Board of Judges to hear complaints. The Directors earnestly hope that all exhibitors will not enter protests without strong grounds for doing so, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature.
19. In case an error occurs in the printing of the Prize List, the Directors have the power to rectify the same.
20. In case of insufficient funds, due to weather or other conditions, the Society reserves the right to pay only a percentage of the prizes awarded for exhibits.
21. Should a livestock show be cancelled due to weather or other conditions, the Society reserves the right to pay only a percentage of the prize money for that portion and/or mileage consideration, at the final decision of the Society executive.

GENERAL RULES FOR ALL BREEDS DEFINITIONS

1. a EXHIBIT
For the purpose of the Classifications an exhibit shall be interpreted as follows: All registered animals, whether owned by one person or by more than one person (individually or jointly), are considered to be the production of the farm breeding unit on which they are maintained.
 - b EXHIBITOR
An exhibitor is any breeder or firm which presents animals for official placing by a judge at the time specified by the fair for judging.
 - c BREEDING UNIT
For the purposes of the Classifications a "Breeding Units" is defined as follows: In each classification where common interests are involved in more than one breeding operation such operations are considered as one Breeding Unit. In all cases where there is any doubt that more than one breeding unit exists, the interpretation shall be that only one breeding unit exists. The responsibility of proof of separation of breeding units shall rest with the exhibitor(s).
 - d PUREBRED
"Purebred" means an animal that is purebred of the breed as determined by the by-laws of an association authorized to register animals of that breed.
2. CHECKING OF EXHIBITS
Checking of exhibits is the responsibility of the fair. The fair will exclude ineligible animals and those not positively identified before judging. Proof of Ownership must be available upon request.

GRADE 4 and GRADE 5

Each student in Grades 4 and 5 in the local schools will be given a packet of sunflower seeds in April to plant in May and care for. On Monday, September 27, 1999 (the week of Caledonia fair), each student is asked to bring to school:

one tallest sunflower plant (no dirt on the roots)
and one largest sunflower head

Each must be labelled with the student's name, age, grade, school and category, and then tied to the sunflower. Judging is done by the principal and teacher on Tuesday, September 28, 1999. Each winner at the school receives a certificate provided by the Haldimand Federation of Agriculture. The winning specimens are to be taken to Caledonia Fair on Wednesday, September 29, 1999 between 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. Each specimen is to have a school tag that can be obtained at the school or the Fair Office. Judging will be done by the President and Vice President of the Haldimand Federation of Agriculture. A champion rosette will be given to the tallest sunflower plant and the biggest sunflower head. A reserve champion rosette will also be awarded in the two categories.

Rosettes must be picked up on Sunday, October 3, 1999 at 6:30 p.m. at the Fair. Each winner's school will be contacted after the judging to notify the student about pick-up. Each champion school receives a plaque to display until the following May. It must then be returned to Marlene Phibbs.

Millennium Quilt

The Millennium Quilt is a project of the Homecraft Division of Caledonia Fair. In the spring of 1998 a committee of Homecraft members met and decided to organize a project to celebrate the new millennium as well as raise funds for the Fair. What better project for a country fair than the production of a Quilt!

The pattern "Country Boy" was selected. The Fair provided each quilter with the pattern and a selection of fabric for a fee of $5.00 which was refunded upon return of the completed quilt block. We distributed 45 kits and were delighted that 43 completed squares were returned. A glance at the list of our talented quilt block makers indicates that this was truly a community project. The blocks were judged at the 1998 Caledonia Fair. The first place winner was Wendy Alderson of Caledonia followed by Christine Gillies of Caledonia and Charlotte Leeds of Dunnville.

In the winter of 1999 the committee set about trying to determine the best way to assemble the blocks. We called in quilting expert Jane Webster of Hamilton who suggested a contemporary "Twist and Turn" method that would give the traditional blocks an updated "turn of the millennium" look. After the Quilt top was completed, Mary Roth of Cayuga kindly agreed to quilt it.

The quilt is the creation of many creative hands. Many thanks to Sue Honchar who not only chaired the project but also did most of the assembly assisted by Linda Fisher and June Wise. Thanks also to Ruth Zadanyi who selected the fabric and prepared the kits.

A draw for the quilt will take place at the Annual Meeting of the Fair Board on January 27, 2000.

1st Prize	Millennium Quilt
2nd Prize	Quilt Rack
3rd Prize	Quilted Cushion
