Soil & Crops

Date: September 24, 2026

Morning Session: 9:30 - 11:30am

Afternoon Session: 12:15 - 2:30pm

Location: Caledonia Fair Grounds

Why Attend?

1. Curriculum rooted activity stations

2. Opportunity for your classroom students to think critically about agriculture and food systems.

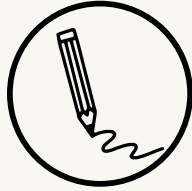

3. Teachers will receive lesson plans and activities tailored to curriculum expectations.

Classroom students will gain an appreciation for food production on the farm, as well as an understanding for how the Agri-food industry connects to the health and well-being of themselves and their community.

First come first serve bases as space is limited.

We can help you meet curriculum expectations in your classroom!

The Haldimand-Norfolk Dairy Educator will visit each classroom in person to prepare the students for the Agstravaganza with an 80-minute FREE curriculum linked presentation.

Haldimand Agricultural Awareness Committee will be partnering with local farm groups to provide the "hands-on" activities for stations.

Farmers will discuss and demonstrate with live animals and plants.

Haldimand Agricultural Awareness Committee is a member of AgScape. A portion of resources and promotional pieces are brought to you by AgScape. For more information visit www.AgScape.ca
