PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Caledonia Fair 2008

Come help us celebrate 136 years of the Caledonia Fair. Earlier this year, the Caledonia Agricultural Society was recognized for its efforts in promoting local tourism by winning the Scotch Thistle award by Caledonia and District Chamber of Commerce. We entice a large number of visitors each year to share with us the pleasures of sights, sounds and flavours of a typical agricultural fall fair.

We aim to please our guests with new and exciting experiences along with the traditional pleasures of our fair, so this year we are adding Bishop's Wild West Show and our very own Haldimand Has Talent show to our Sunday program.

Come join the fun September 25 to September 28!

8. The Society will not be responsible for any loss, damage or accident occurring to any person or property on the grounds during the Fair. The Directors hope patrons of the Fair obey orders. The Society will take all reasonable care of exhibits, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage. (Please note Hold Harmless Agreement on following page.)
9. While every possible assistance will be most cheerfully given in placing exhibits, no package or case of any kind whatsoever will be opened unless accompanied by the exhibitor or someone sent specially in charge.
10. That all articles entered for competition must be entered in strict accordance with the Prize List in order to secure a prize, the exact number and quantity stated in the prize list being strictly adhered to.
11. No member will be allowed to make more than one entry in each section for Society Prizes with the same animal or article unless otherwise specified. This rule not to apply to animals in herds or pens, nor to special prizes offered by persons outside the Society, but to apply to all kinds of grains, seeds, flowers, roots and vegetables, domestic and horticultural products, in which additional specimens would necessarily be similar to the first.

12. All produce to be growth of parties exhibiting same. Every animal, fowl, article, product or chattel exhibited must be the actual bona fide property and belong absolutely to the person or persons entering or exhibiting the same. In the case of every article, product or chattel exhibited, other than livestock, the said article, product or chattel must be of the actual production, growth or manufacture, as the case may be, of the person or persons owning or exhibiting the same, except specially mentioned in the list.
13. Tickets will be placed on the work that has been exhibited before, or is entered in the wrong list, with the words "Ruled Out".

18. All protests to be made in writing as soon as possible, so that the judges in the class may be heard on it, as the Directors of the Society do not constitute a Board of Judges to hear complaints. The Directors earnestly hope that all exhibitors will not enter protests without strong grounds for doing so, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature.
19. In case an error occurs in the printing of the Prize List, the Directors have the power to rectify the same.
20. In case of insufficient funds, due to weather or other conditions, the Society reserves the right to pay only a percentage of the prizes awarded for exhibits.
21. Should a livestock show be cancelled due to weather or other conditions, the Society reserves the right to pay only a percentage of the prize money for that portion and/or mileage consideration, at the final decision of the Society executive.

Notice is hereby given that the Officers of the Society may, by their rules and regulations, prohibit and prevent theatrical, circus and mountebank performances, the sale of lottery tickets, exhibitions or shows, and may prohibit the sale of cheap jewellery or other articles of a similar nature, and no games of chance or gambling will be permitted on the grounds or within 200 yards thereof; the Society may also regulate or prevent the huckstering or trafficking in fruit, goods, wares or merchandise on the Exhibition Grounds, or within 300 yards thereof.

If there is any question of the state of health of an animal brought to the attention of the executive of the Caledonia Agricultural Society, the exhibitor will be required, at his or her expense, to provide veterinary inspection to confirm the animal's state of good health. If it cannot be demonstrated, the exhibitor will be required to remove the animal(s) from the fairgrounds immediately.

DEFINITIONS

1. a EXHIBIT:
For the purpose of the Classifications an exhibit shall be interpreted as follows:
All registered animals, whether owned by one person or by more than one person (individually or jointly), are considered to be the production of the farm breeding unit on which they are maintained.
 - b EXHIBITOR:
An exhibitor is any breeder or firm which presents animals for official placing by a judge at the time specified by the fair for judging.
 - c BREEDING UNIT:
For the purposes of the Classifications a "Breeding Units" is defined as follows: In each classification where common interests are involved in more than one breeding operation such operations are considered as one Breeding Unit. In all cases where there is any doubt that more than one breeding unit exists, the interpretation shall be that only one breeding unit exists. The responsibility of proof of separation of breeding units shall rest with the exhibitor(s).
 - d PUREBRED:
"Purebred" means an animal that is purebred of the breed as determined by the by-laws of an association authorized to register animals of that breed.
2. CHECKING OF EXHIBITS: Checking of exhibits is the responsibility of the fair. The fair will exclude ineligible animals and those not positively identified before judging. Proof of Ownership must be available upon request.
NOTE: Cattle must be in barns by 10:00 a.m. on the day that class is shown and must remain in the grounds until after 4:00 p.m. This rule will be strictly enforced.
