PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE Welcome to the 121st Caledonia Fair

I am pleased to extend my personal greetings and those of the directors of the Caledonia Agricultural Society, to the many thousands of visitors and exhibitors to the 121st Caledonia Fair. I would also like to express my sincere congratulations and best wishes to all those who have given so generously of their time and their efforts to make the 1993 Caledonia Fair another success.

Agriculture is a symbol of peace and productivity. It has made a greater contribution to progress and development than any other industry and it is fitting that we recognize it through this showcase, Caledonia Fair.

So mark September 30th to October 3rd on your calendar and come and enjoy our traditional country fair.

Don Carlin

FAIR QUEEN for 1992

A sincere welcome to the 1993 Caledonia Fall Fair. As we celebrate our 121st fair I would like to take this opportunity to remind our visitors that no matter what your age or "station in life" Caledonia's fair has something that will create a memory for you.

My first step in becoming an exhibitor was a small tin can in which I placed five petunias. Throughout the years as an exhibitor my fair horizons were broadened to include many other areas. When I became Caledonia's 1992 Fair Queen I had the special honour of representing them in their 120th year. My duties as Fair Queen, throughout the four days of our fair made me realize that there were so many aspects of the fair I had not seen.

The Agricultural Awareness program, the various animal showings, the special events platform and the many interesting grandstand events are proof that the fair educates as well as entertains.

My memories as Caledonia Fair Queen will last forever. I took part in several parades, was a guest at other fairs, attended events such as media night, Waterford's Pumpkinfest and sheep dog trials. I was afforded the opportunity to attend banquets and to speak to several local organizations throughout my year as Fair Queen. My reign is far from over. I will be representing our fair at the C.N.E. Ambassador of the Fairs Contest in August and will be attending local community events.

I have made new friends and gained a greater insight into the hard work that is required to co-ordinate a fair. I am proud to have been chosen to work with those volunteers who give so freely of their time and energy for our fair. Their dedication and loyalty is never ending. I wish them much success in their future endeavours. Your attendance at and participation in Caledonia's 121st Fall Fair will be their reward.

I hope to see you there.

Allison McAlpine

- For the purposes of the Classifications an exhibit shall be interpreted as follows:

All registered animals, whether owned by one person or by more than one person (individually or jointly), are considered to be the production of the farm or breeding unit on which they are maintained.

Where the same or common interests are involved in more than one breeding operation such operations are considered as one Breeding Unit. In all cases where there is any doubt that more than one breeding unit exists, the interpretation shall be that only one breeding unit exists. The responsibility of proof of separation of breeding units shall rest with the exhibitor(s).

- NUMBER OF CLASSES

A fair must offer the following six breeding classes and may offer the optional market lamb class.

- NUMBER OF EXHIBITS PER BREEDING UNIT

The maximum total eligible exhibits per breed from a breeding unit is 8 head (including the single market lamb class).
