Our Front Cover Picture

This sketch of "Caledonia Mills" was copied from the 1879 Historical Atlas of Haldimand County. Approximately 100 years ago Caledonia Mills was one of two first-class flouring mills in the Village of Caledonia, with one on each bank of the Grand River. These Mills were owned and operated by the partnership of McQuarry, Thorburn and Munro who were the largest dealers in grain in Haldimand County. These two Mills, which gave employment to forty men, turned out 1500 barrels of flour weekly and most of this flour was shipped to Montreal for consumption in the Lower Provinces of Canada.

It is with great pride that the Officers and Directors of Caledonia Agricultural Society present their 1972 Prize List. This is a special year for the Society, because we are celebrating our 100th Anniversary, another important milestone to add to our records.

The ideas and plans to commemorate this event have been many, and the results have shown enthusiastic participation on the part of everyone concerned.

Our lady directors will be attired in new dresses and blazers, and the men will be wearing appropriate 100th year Kentucky bow ties and Centennial Top hats.

We sincerely welcome all Exhibitors, both new and old, and hope that their response will be the largest ever. May they look forward to our Centennial Fair with the same excitement and anticipation as are the members and workers of the Society.

LEWIS KEEFER, President,
Caledonia Agricultural Society.
