PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE for 1987

Welcome to the 115th Caledonia Fair. It is a privilege to have the opportunity to serve as president for the Caledonia Agricultural Society.

It has been said that rural fairs are a window on agriculture, and we believe that Caledonia's fair is a prime example of this. Through the various livestock shows and exhibits we hope our urban neighbours can fully appreciate how important agriculture is to the economy today.

This year we welcome you to our newly constructed poultry building which we are sure will enhance our usually fine poultry show.

The success of our first fair queen pageant last year and the popularity of the winner, Wanda Overend, has prompted us to make this an annual event.

For the second consecutive year, our fair display arranged by Ruth Zadanyi took first place in the competition at our convention in Toronto in February. At this same event, our slide presentation prepared by Bill Balsdon took top Honours for A and B fairs, in overall points.

The Caledonia Fair has a proud history of success. The cooperation and dedication of our directors and associate directors are invaluable in ensuring an even bigger and better fair in 1987.

ALLAN MURRAY
President Caledonia,
Agricultural Society

FAIR QUEEN
for 1986

Welcome to Caledonia's 115th Fall Fair! That time of year is fast approaching and I hope that each and everyone of you in some way may take part in this special occasion.

As my reign as Caledonia Fair Queen draws to an end, I would like to say that it has been an honor for me to represent Caledonia Fair in this unique way. Being Caledonia Fair's first fair queen has also added a special meaning to the privilege.

This honor has provided me with many memorable experiences. Events such as the fair itself, the parades, the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies convention in February, the banquets, the Canfield Women's Institute meetings and the upcoming CNE Queen of the Fairs Pageant comprise a list of such unforgettable and memorable experiences. The friends I have made and people I have met during the past year has most certainly been the highlight.

In closing, I would like to say that a strong sense of spirit is what produces a successful fair. When there is spirit, there is community involvement and without the community involvement, Caledonia would not be hosting its 115th Fall Fair.

SEE YOU AT THE FAIR!

Sincerely,
Wanda Overend
