There is a wonderful display of live stock in the barns and we know only a part of the visitors at the Fair see this great display. Many of the winners of prizes at Toronto Exhibition come here and this is particularly true of the dairy herds. The finest herds in Ontario are at Caledonia Fair. The same is true of Sheep and Horses, so that a visit to the stock barns is worth while.

21. Judges will please sign and hand in their list of awards to the Secretary, and remain until their books have been signed by the Secretary, in order that cases of error or doubt may be more promptly and easily made right, and they are particularly requested not to leave the grounds until they have ascertained from the Secretary that there are no protests against the awards in their department.
22. Any exhibitor or interested person making a protest will be required to make a deposit of $2, and if said protest is not sustained the said amount will be retained by the Association.
23. All protests to be made in writing as soon as possible, so that the judges in the class may be heard on it, as the Directors of the Society do not constitute a Board of Judges to hear complaints. The Directors earnestly hope that the exhibitors will not enter protests without strong grounds for doing so, as much annoyance and unpleasantness is often occasioned by protests of a frivolous nature.
24. The Society will not be responsible for any loss, damage or accident occurring to any person or property on the grounds during the Fair. The Directors hope patrons of the Fair will obey orders. The Society will take all reasonable care of exhibits, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage.
